Foundational Triads

- The Identity Triad

- Joan's identity was a holy trinity of energies. Her Sagittarius Ascendant gave her the outward persona of the inspired visionary, the truth-seeker on a divine quest, approaching the world with fervent faith and boundless conviction. This was the face of the Maiden Warrior, guided by a fire that looked toward a distant horizon.
- Her core, however, was forged in the pragmatic earth of her Capricorn Sun. This speaks to a soul with an immense sense of duty, discipline, and an unwavering commitment to a tangible mission. She was not just a dreamer; she was a builder, her purpose anchored in the world of form, structure, and legacy.
- Her inner world, her emotional heart, resided in the airy, dualistic realm of her Gemini Moon. This reveals a mind that was perpetually translating divine whispers, a psyche that processed feeling through thought, story, and communication. This Moon, placed in the 7th House of the 'other,' suggests her emotional state was profoundly tied to her relationships and her role as a messenger for a higher power.

- The Evolutionary Triad:

- Genius Planet: Jupiter in Libra (House 10)
 - Her natural brilliance was her unwavering faith in justice and her ability to inspire belief on a grand, public scale. Jupiter here is the charismatic leader whose authority comes from a divine mandate for balance and righteousness.
- Edge Planet: Mars in Virgo (House 9)
 - Her karmic test was the tension between action and perfection, faith and doubt. Mars in Virgo in the 9th house is the meticulous spiritual warrior, driven by a need for purity of action, yet haunted by self-critique and the immense burden of a flawless crusade.
- Mission Planet Neptune in Cancer (House 7)
 - Her ultimate soul direction was to dissolve worldly boundaries through unconditional, mystical devotion. Neptune here points to a destiny of becoming a vessel for a divine, emotional, and unifying force, sacrificing the personal self for a connection that transcends logic and touches the soul of her people.

Chart Ruler

- Chart Ruler:
 - Joan's chart is ruled by Jupiter, the planet of faith, expansion, and higher meaning, as it governs her Sagittarius Ascendant.
- Sign & House:
 - Jupiter is exalted in Libra in the 10th House of public life, legacy, and authority. This placement is extraordinarily potent, casting her as a figure of divine justice and moral leadership on the world stage. Her path was inherently public, her purpose inextricably linked to the fate of her nation.
- Key Aspects:
 - Jupiter is in a tight opposition to Saturn (0°49', Separating), creating a foundational tension between expansion and limitation, faith and worldly structure. It also trines the Sun (1°54', Applying), blessing her mission with vitality and a sense of cosmic alignment.

Elemental & Modal Alchemy:

- Elements:
 - Fire: 2 (Sun, Mercury)
 - Fuelled by vision and inspiration.
 - Earth: 3 (Venus, Mars, Saturn)
 - Grounded in duty and practical application.
 - Air: 4 (Moon, Jupiter, Uranus, Pluto)
 - Mentally agile, relational, and communicative.
 - Water: 1 (Neptune)
 - A solitary but profound well of mystical emotion and spiritual surrender.
- Modalities:
 - Cardinal: 4 (Sun, Venus, Jupiter, Neptune)
 - A powerful initiator, driven to start new cycles.
 - Fixed: 2 (Saturn, Uranus)
 - Possessing deep reserves of endurance and stubborn will.
 - Mutable: 4 (Moon, Mercury, Mars, Pluto)
 - Adaptable, communicative, and able to navigate complex landscapes.

The blend reveals a soul designed to be both a visionary initiator (Cardinal Fire/Air) and a pragmatic servant (Mutable Earth). The single water planet, Neptune, acts as the silent, mystical undertow pulling all other energies toward a spiritual purpose.

Tight Natal Aspects

Aspects are the energetic conversations between planets in your chart at birth. They reveal your core strengths, inner tensions, and pathways for growth. Tight aspects (under 2-3° orb) are particularly potent, like energetic hotspots you feel consistently.

- Applying aspects (A) represent energies still building, shaping current life with momentum or pressure to evolve.
- Separating aspects (S) are energies already encountered, familiar lessons, or more integrated dynamics.

Main Aspects:

The heavens inscribed deep, powerful conversations into Joan's soul. These tight aspects are the live wires of her chart, the source of her greatest strengths and most profound trials.

Tightest Natal Aspect:

- Venus Square Saturn | Orb: 0°20' | (S)
 - This is the tightest aspect, revealing a core wound and a great strength. It speaks of love bound by duty, personal desire sacrificed for a greater cause, and a profound sense of solemnity in her feminine expression. It is the austerity of the saint, the beauty found not in pleasure, but in devotion.
- Jupiter Opposition Saturn | Orb: 0°49' | (S)
 - The central dynamic of her life. A soul-defining tug-of-war between boundless faith (Jupiter) and the harsh, limiting realities of the material world (Saturn). Her entire journey was a manifestation of this opposition: a divine vision confronting the rigid structures of church and state.
- Sun Trine Jupiter | Orb: 1°54' | (A)
 - A river of grace flowed through her. This aspect blessed her with profound optimism, divine protection (for a time), and an innate belief in the righteousness of her mission. It gave her the charisma and luck to rally armies and crown a king.

Phase 2: Dynamic Interplay – Activations, Tensions & Growth

Objective: Here, we observe how the natal promise was tested and forged in the crucible of time. The planetary transits at the end of her life reveal the cosmic pressures that precipitated her martyrdom and sealed her legacy.

Signature Aspect Analysis

- The Jupiter-Saturn opposition forms the spine of Joan's story. Jupiter in Libra in the 10th House is the call to enact divine justice in the public sphere, to be a symbol of hope and balance for a broken nation. But opposite it, Saturn in Taurus in the 5th House demands a heavy, earthly price. It represents the entrenched powers, the unyielding structures, and the personal, creative life force that must be sacrificed (5th House) for the sake of her public role (10th House). This was her destiny: to bring a vision of divine order into a world that would ultimately crush it with its own rigid laws.

Transit Overview & Analysis

Transits are the movements of current planets activating the birth chart. At the moment of his release, the cosmos told a story of profound rebirth.

- Uranus Transits: Bring sudden changes, liberation, awakenings, and disruption of the status quo, often heralding innovation.
- Neptune Transits: Dissolve old forms, heighten sensitivity, inspire idealism, and can bring spiritualization, confusion, or the uncovering of dreams.
- Pluto Transits: Trigger deep transformation, power dynamics, elimination of the outworn, crises leading to regeneration, and profound healing.

Outer Planet Positions at time of death: May 30, 1431:

At 19, Joan was undergoing a profound series of transits that sealed her fate and transformed her from a soldier into a martyr.

- Transiting Pluto Conjunct Natal Moon (and Natal Pluto)
 - This is an overwhelmingly powerful transit of fate and transformation. Transiting Pluto at $\sim 20^\circ$ Gemini was exactly conjunct her natal Moon at 20° Gemini. The Moon represents her physical body and emotional self. Pluto's conjunction signifies a total annihilation and rebirth. Her very identity was being forcibly stripped away, her emotional core subjected to the ultimate power struggle, leading to a fated, public death (7th House) that would ensure her mythic resurrection.

- Transiting Uranus Square Natal Sun

- Transiting Uranus at ~15° Taurus was forming a hard square to her natal Sun at 14° Capricorn. This is the classic signature of sudden, shocking reversals of fortune and a radical break from the established order. The very structures she had served (Capricorn Sun) turned against her in a shocking and liberating (Uranus) act of rebellion, freeing her from her earthly form.

- Transiting Neptune Square Natal Jupiter

- Transiting Neptune at ~10° Cancer was squaring her natal Jupiter at 12° Libra. This transit dissolves faith, brings confusion, and can manifest as betrayal from those idealized. The divine favor she had so powerfully channeled (Jupiter) was being clouded by deception and disillusionment, leading to a sense of spiritual martyrdom where her grand vision met a watery, tragic end.

Saturn Transit Focus - The Final Reckoning

At the time of her death, transiting Saturn was at ~23° Sagittarius, conjunct her natal Mercury (22° Sagittarius) and squaring her natal Mars (8° Virgo) and North Node (7° Pisces). Saturn, the lord of karma and judgment, was putting immense pressure on her mind (Mercury) and her divine mission (Mars/North Node). This transit manifested as the formal trial and judgment (Saturn) against her words and beliefs (Mercury). The voice that had inspired a nation was now being silenced by the highest authority, a final, karmic test of her convictions.

Dynamic Synthesis - The Growth Arc

Joan's growth arc was a swift and brutal trajectory from divine messenger to sacrificial lamb. The transits at her death show a soul being systematically dismantled by the very forces it sought to serve. Pluto's conjunction with her Moon was the fated erasure of her personal self. Uranus's square to her Sun was the shocking betrayal by the powers she had legitimized. And Saturn's pressure on her Mercury was the silencing of her prophetic voice. Her task was not to win the war and live a long life, but to embody a divine principle so purely that her death would become a more powerful statement than her life ever could. She was called to evolve from a doer into a symbol.

Soul Reflection: The Chart Speaks Back

Joan of Arc was born under the steadfast light of a Capricorn Sun, with a lunar heart that danced with the angels in Gemini, and a rising path forged in the holy fire of Sagittarius. Her soul speaks in the language of pragmatic vision and divine communication, with Jupiter as her guiding star and the tension between faith and form as her life's core crucible.

She was not here to live a simple life, but to embody a divine paradox. Right now, in the timeless realm of legacy, her chart speaks not of an ending, but of a transfiguration. Her life asks us to trust the voice that speaks from beyond the veil, to hold fast to a vision even when the world demands we surrender it. Her next chapter began the moment her earthly one ended, igniting a fire in the heart of a nation that has never gone out.

◆ Mantra: "My faith is my fire."

Soul Synthesis: A Narrative Reflection of the Chart

◆ Genius: The Light You Lead With

You lead with Jupiter in Libra in the 10th House—a frequency of divine justice and inspired grace that you radiated effortlessly. In your short life, this showed up as an unshakeable belief in your cause, a charisma that could rally armies and crown a king. As an adult, it became the power to be a living vessel for hope, to restore balance to a world thrown into chaos. You didn't have to earn this authority; it was your birthright, a direct line to the heavens that you made visible on Earth.

What becomes possible when a soul fully trusts the divine mandate it carries?

◆ Edge: The Pattern You Must Transform

To unlock your Genius, the soul first had to face its Edge. Your Mars in Virgo in the 9th House, combined with the tight Venus-Saturn square, reveals the deep imprint of the sacred servant. This was the pattern you came to alchemize: the tension between divine command and human perfection, the immense weight of carrying out God's will flawlessly. This may have manifested as a private burden, a relentless inner critic demanding purity in every action, every word. You learned to sacrifice all personal desire for the austerity of the mission. But in your ultimate surrender, this pattern was transformed from a burden of perfection into an act of perfect faith.

What old story of servitude was released so that your spirit could become sovereign?

◆ Mission: The Life You Were Made to Build

Once this Edge was faced, the Mission unfolded with breathtaking speed. Your North Node in Pisces in the 3rd House stretched you beyond the comfort of your Virgo South Node—the path of the meticulous soldier. You were not ultimately here to win battles, but to deliver a message of mystical unity. You were here to move from the logic of earthly service to the transcendent surrender of divine faith. Every choice you made, every voice you followed, pulled you toward this destiny: to dissolve into the story, to become a symbol, a martyr whose silence would speak louder than any prayer.

What does it look like to walk toward a destiny that requires the ultimate surrender?

◆ Soul Summary:

You are a soul who came to walk between the heavens and the earth, a bridge of fire and faith. With Jupiter's grace as your crown, Mars' sacred duty as your sword, and your North Node pulling you into the ocean of myth, your chart whispers one eternal message: some truths are worth dying for. You did not become a legend—you were remembering the legend you always were.

◆ Signature Sentence:

Her conviction was a kingdom, and her heart was its king.

◆ Archetypal Title:

The Maiden of Holy Fire

◆ Soul Reflection:

Which part of this message echoes in the collective story of courage and faith we still tell today?

Which part of Joan's journey feels like it wants to be lived, not just understood, as a timeless archetype of speaking truth to power?

🌟 Soul Integration Plan: Turning Insight into Embodiment 🌟

For a soul like Joan's, whose life has become a legacy, the integration plan is not for her, but for the world that remembers her. It is a ritual of remembrance.

Mind

- Practice Title: The Practice of Listening
- Integration: The Vow of the Inner Voice. In a world of noise, Joan's story invites us to cultivate a sacred silence. The practice is to spend a few moments each day in quiet contemplation, not to think, but to listen. Ask: "What quiet truth is waiting to be heard beneath my own fear and doubt?" This honors her Mercury in Sagittarius, the mind attuned to a higher signal.

Body

- Practice Title: The Ritual of Embodied Conviction
- Integration: The Root of Courage. Joan's Capricorn Sun gave her profound endurance. The practice is to stand barefoot on the earth, feeling its solid support. Inhale, and draw that strength up through your body. Exhale, and release the fear of standing alone. This is a somatic ritual of grounding your own convictions, of feeling your own "right to be here" in your bones.

Spirit

- Practice Title: The Flame of Devotion
- Integration: Lighting the Fire of Purpose. Joan's life was a testament to a single, burning purpose. The practice is to light a candle. As you watch the flame, meditate on what you are devoted to—not what you do, but what you serve. Let this simple flame represent your own inner fire, your own connection to a purpose greater than yourself. This honors the fire of her Sagittarius rising and the ultimate sacrifice she made.

Follow-up Prompts for Personal Reflection (for those inspired by his legacy):

- Which of these practices speaks to a part of your own spirit that has been neglected?
- How would your life shift if you dedicated yourself, even for a moment each day, to your own sacred fire?
